LOCAL GOVERNMENT, ENGLAND AND WALES

REGULATORY REFORM

The Legislative Reform (Local Authority Consent Requirements) (England and Wales) Order 2007

Made	- - - -	2007
Coming into force	- -	2007

The Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government makes the following Order, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 1 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006(a).

For the purposes of section 3(1) of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006, she considers, where relevant, that the conditions under section 3(2) are satisfied.

In accordance with section 11 of that Act, the National Assembly for Wales has agreed to the making of the Order.

She has consulted in accordance with section 13(1) of that Act, save to the extent covered by section 13(3) and 13(4) of that Act.

She laid a draft Order and an explanatory document before Parliament in accordance with section 14(1) of that Act.

Pursuant to section 15 of that Act, the affirmative resolution procedure (within the meaning of Part 1 of that Act) applies in relation to the making of the Order.

In accordance with section 17(2) of that Act, the draft has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament after the expiry of the 40-day period referred to in that provision.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order removes a number of burdens on local authorities caused by the need for them to seek consent of the Attorney-General, the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales before taking certain actions. The Order extends to England and Wales only.

Section 4 of the Cancer Act 1939 provides that (with some exceptions) it is an offence for a person to take part in the publication of any advertisement containing an offer to treat any person for cancer, to prescribe a remedy for it or to give any advice in connection with the treatment of it. A prosecution for such an offence must not be instituted in England or Wales without the consent of the Attorney-General (subsection (6)) and, subject to that, a county council or county borough council has a duty to institute proceedings under section 4 (subsection (7)). This Order removes the burden on the authority instituting the proceedings, to seek the consent of the Attorney-General, by repealing subsection (6) and replacing subsection (7). The new subsection (7) provides the authority with a discretionary power to prosecute for an offence under section 4. The references to a council of a county or county borough in subsection (7) are updated so that they also refer to a district council for an area with no county council, a London borough council and the Common Council of the City of London, thereby including councils for all areas for which, at the time the Cancer Act 1939 was passed, there were county or county borough councils (article 2).

far as exercisable in relation to Wales, transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by article 2 of the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/672); see the entry for the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 in Schedule 1 to that Order.

(a) 1993 c. 25; section 1 was amended by section 400 of, and paragraph 59 of Part I of Schedule 29 to, the Greater London Authority Act 1999 (c. 29); paragraph 103 of Schedule 16 to the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 (c. 19); section 93 of, and Part I of Schedule 9 to, the Police and Magistrates’ Courts Act 1994 (c. 29); sections 78 and 120(3) of, and paragraph 36 of Schedule 10 and Schedule 24 to, the Environment Act 1995 (c. 25); and S.I. 2001/3618.

(b) 1996 c. 56; paragraph 6 of Schedule 1 was amended by paragraph 184 of Schedule 30 to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (c. 31), S.I. 2002/2953 (in relation to England) and S.I. 2002/3184 (in relation to Wales). The functions of the Secretary of State under paragraph 6 of Schedule 1 are, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by article 2 of the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/672); see the entry for the Education Act 1996 in Schedule 1 to that Order.

Section 171(4) of the Public Health Act 1875 incorporates in that Act the provisions of the Town Police Clauses Act 1847 with respect to hackney carriages, under which taxis are licensed to ply for hire within a certain area. Paragraph 25 of Schedule 14 to the Local Government Act 1972 enables a local authority to resolve that section 171(4) of the Public Health Act 1875 shall apply throughout the authority's area. By virtue of sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 25, a resolution does not have effect unless approved by the Secretary of State or, in Wales, the National Assembly for Wales (functions of the Secretary of State under paragraph 25 are exercisable by the Assembly concurrently with the Secretary of State). The burden on local authorities, to seek the approval of the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales, is removed by this Order, which repeals sub-paragraph (4), and amends sub-paragraph (6), of paragraph 25 (article 3). Article 3 also includes a transitional provision for resolutions passed before the date on which this Order comes into force but which have not been approved or disapproved before that date.

By virtue of section 71(2) of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, the approval of the Secretary of State or, in Wales, the National Assembly for Wales is required before a local authority can take certain action, such as acquiring shares or appointing directors, in relation to certain companies. This does not apply in relation to companies under the control of the local authority or "authorised companies" specified by the Secretary of State or, in Wales, the National Assembly for Wales by order (subsection (1)). Although section 71 is not fully in force, so at present no approval is required, the potential burden on local authorities, to seek the approval of the Secretary of State or, in Wales, the National Assembly for Wales before taking any of the action specified in subsection (2), is removed by this Order, which amends subsection (1) and repeals subsections (2) and (3) of section 71 (article 4).

Subsection (1) of section 1 of the Local Government (Overseas Assistance) Act 1993 enables a local authority to provide advice and assistance as respects any matter in which they have skill and experience to a body engaged outside the United Kingdom in the carrying out of any of the activities of local government. Subsection (3) of section 1 prevents a local authority exercising the power in subsection (1) without the consent of the Secretary of State or in accordance with a general authorisation given by him. This Order removes the burden on local authorities, to seek such consent or authorisation before exercising the power, by repealing subsection (3) and related provisions (article 5).

Paragraph 6 of Schedule 1 to the Education Act 1996 concerns the curriculum for pupil referral units. There is a duty in sub-paragraph (1) for the local education authority, the management committee (where applicable) and the teacher in charge to exercise their functions with a view to securing that the curriculum for their units satisfies certain statutory requirements for provision of a balanced and broadly based curriculum. Sub-paragraph (2) enables regulations to make provision for the determination and organisation of the curriculum, and the regulations may require the local education committee, management committee or teacher in charge to exercise prescribed functions in relation to the curriculum. Sub-paragraph (3) requires the local education authority, with the approval of the Secretary of State or, in Wales, the National Assembly for Wales, to make arrangements for the consideration and disposal of any complaint concerning the unreasonable exercise of any power or duty under sub-paragraph (1) or (2) or the failure to discharge such a duty. The burden on local education authorities, to seek the approval of the Secretary of State or, in Wales, the National Assembly for Wales, in relation to the arrangements under sub-paragraph (3), is removed by this Order, which amends sub-paragraph (3) (article 6).
